| EVIDENCE-BASED CLAIMS CRITERIA CHECKLIST I - G11-12   |   | COMMENTS |
|---|---|----------|
| I. CONTENT AND ANALYSISAn EBC is a clearly statedinference that arises from closereading of a text.                 | Clarity of the Claim:Purposefully states a valid, text-based inferenceor conclusion that an identified audienceshould consider.Conformity to the Text:Arises from (and sometimes comments on) themain ideas, supporting details, language andform of one or more texts.Understanding of the Topic:Presents a knowledgeable analysis,interpretation, commentary, and/or conclusionabout a substantive text or topic. |          |
| II. COMMAND OF EVIDENCEAn EBC is supported by specifictextual evidence and developedthrough valid reasoning. | Reasoning:Communicates a supported inference and validreasoning based directly on relevant andsufficient textual evidence.Use and Integration of Evidence:Is developed through a logical sequence ofquotations, references, or citations that arethoughtfully selected and coherentlyintegrated.  |          |

