

CLAIM: Clinton argues that when systemic restrictions on the full participation of women in the economy are removed, all members of society will benefit.

Point 1 → WOMEN HAVE BEEN RESTRICTED		Point 2 → WOMEN'S PARTICIPATION BENEFITS ALL
A Supporting Evidence "we need to unlock a vital source of growth that can power our economies in the decades to come. And that vital source of growth is women." (Reference: lines 22-23 )	B Supporting Evidence "we must remove structural and social impediments that stack the deck against them." (Reference: line 56 )	A Supporting Evidence "by increasing women's participation in the economy and enhancing their efficiency and productivity, we can bring about a dramatic impact on the competitiveness and growth of our economies." (Reference: lines 25-27 )	B Supporting Evidence "increasing numbers of women in the economy and the rising productivity gains from improving the distribution of their talents and skills has helped fuel significant growth everywhere. And economies that are making the shift more effectively and rapidly are dramatically outperforming those that have not." (Reference: lines 50-54 )
C Supporting Evidence "they are denied access to credit and may even be prohibited from opening bank accounts, signing contracts, purchasing property, incorporating a business, or filing lawsuits without a male guardian." (Reference: lines 99-101 )	D Supporting Evidence "we don't have a person to waste, and we certainly don't have a gender to waste either." (Reference: lines 63-64 )	C Supporting Evidence "Goldman Sachs report shows how a reduction in barriers to female labor force participation would increase America's GDP by 9 percent. We admit we still have such barriers. It would increase the Eurozone's by 13 percent - and they need it - and Japan's by 16 percent." (Reference: lines 122-125 )	D Supporting Evidence (Reference: )

CLAIM: While Reagan claims each individual must participate through hard work and sacrifice to achieve widespread economic growth, Clinton argues that women have historically been denied access to that participation.
Point 1 → Reagan: Individual participation key to economy		Point 2 → Clinton: Women's participation denied
A Supporting Evidence  "we unleashed the energy and individual genius of man "  (Reference: lines 73-74 )	B Supporting Evidence  "Freedom and the dignity of the individual"  (Reference: line 75 )	A Supporting Evidence  "we must remove structural and social impediments that stack the deck against them."  (Reference: line 56 )	B Supporting Evidence  "they are denied access to credit and may even be prohibited from opening bank accounts, signing contracts, purchasing property, incorporating a business, or filing lawsuits without a male guardian."  (Reference: lines 99-101 )
C Supporting Evidence  "entrepreneurs with faith in themselves and faith in an idea who create new jobs, new wealth, and opportunity"  (Reference: lines 90-91 )	D Supporting Evidence  "removing the roadblocks that have slowed our economy and reduced productivity"  (Reference: lines 107-109 )	C Supporting Evidence  "ensures that men have the higher paying jobs to support their families"  (Reference: line 111 )	D Supporting Evidence  "denied the chance to contribute fully to that growth"  (Reference: lines 115-116 )